VICKY & LAWRENCE

The bride wore Manolo Blahnik heels from NORDSTROM.

Vicky donned three looks on her wedding day. The first was the traditional qipao, purchased from LOVELY WEDDING STUDIO and worn during the Chinese tea ceremony.

A Floral-Filled Wedding

Vicky Kao and Lawrence Law were first introduced through family friends in January 2016 and have been together ever since! Having already discussed marriage and their future wedding, Lawrence began planning the perfect proposal. "We are both homebodies so he planned a cozy and romantic proposal with just the two of us," shares Vicky. The wedding took place on June 3, 2017 in Vancouver, British Columbia. Jenny De Jong and Soha Lavin of COUNTDOWN EVENTS PLANNING & DESIGN provided full event planning services and according to the bride and groom, "Soha and Jenny did a great job organizing the wedding and recommending professional vendors."

Lawrence wore formalwear from BLAIR SHAPERA, along with Salvatore Ferragamo shoes and an Audemars Piguet watch.

Vicky's traditional white bouquet consisted of stephanotis and English garden roses and was designed by Soha Lavin in conjunction with TALA FLORIST, who provided all floral for the wedding.

CEREMONY NOTES

Vicky and Lawrence were wed in the ballroom foyer at the FAIRMONT PACIFIC RIM. The lavish entranceway to the ceremony space was truly a sight to behold. White floor-to-ceiling draping from ÉCLAT DCOR INC flanked either side of both floral arches designed by TALA FLORIST. Hydrangea, orchid leis, and hanging crystal garlands comprised the arches. Tall clear candleholders with floating white candles and a glossy white floor embellished with the couple's gold monogram led guests into the ceremony.

Once inside, the abundance of florals continued. Four white pedestals with overflowing arrangements of hydrangea, roses, and spray roses stood at one end of the aisle and had winding floral garlands wrapped around them, while a rectangular arch made of orchids and Italian greenery in shades of ivory and white comprised the altar. The floral arch was designed by Soha Lavin of COUNTDOWN EVENTS PLANNING & DESIGN and Hassan Aghamohseni of TALA FLORIST. Clear Chiavari chairs from ÉCLAT DCOR INC had small bouquets affixed to the backs, in addition to the oversized florals on clear pillars that lined the aisle.

The bride's second gown, which was worn during the wedding ceremony, was designed by Elie Saab and purchased at CACHE COUTURE ATELIER. Vicky accessorized with earrings and a bracelet from BISOU BRIDAL and a diamond necklace given to her by her mother-in-law.

AN ORCHID-FILLED OASIS

The cocktail and wedding reception were held at the FAIRMONT PACIFIC RIM. Thousands of orchids were flown in to create a stunning vision of white, ivory, and champagne blooms. Gallery and round tables were covered in orchids accented by roses, hydrangea, and ranunculus for added texture. Flowy white draping lined the perimeter of the ballroom for an all-white aesthetic, while subtle gold details in the form of charger plates from ÉCLAT DECOR INC, table numbers from FLOURISH BY COLLEEN WINTON, and chair covers from UPRIGHT DECOR SIGNATURE EVENTS INC. provided a regal touch.

The semi-circular head table, a concept designed by COUNTDOWN EVENTS PLANNING & DESIGN, was provided by Éclat Decor Inc. It was adorned with a cascading arrangement from TALA FLORIST and covered with sheer linens from Upright Decor Signature Events Inc.

The dance floor also featured the couple's gold monogram and was designed by Flourish by Colleen Winton and produced by Éclat Decor Inc.

The couple's six-tier wedding cake was prepared by the Fairmont Pacific Rim.

For the cake-cutting and dancing portions of the evening, Vicky changed into a champagne tulle ball gown designed by Lazaro and purchased at BISOU BRIDAL.

END NOTES

A sumptuous four-course dinner was prepared by the FAIRMONT PACIFIC RIM, in addition to the six-tier cake, which featured edible pearl details, gold accents, the couple's monogram, and fresh flowers running from top to bottom.

The customized dance floor was surrounded by a waterfall of orchids hanging down from the head table and family tables. The glossy white dance floor with the couple's gold monogram was designed by FLOURISH BY COLLEEN WINTON and produced by ÉCLAT DECOR INC.

Entertainment throughout the night was provided by SIEGEL ENTERTAINMENT and included a live violinist, string quartet, and opera soloist. LIFE STUDIOS INC. provided their cinematography services.

The newlyweds currently reside in Vancouver, where Vicky and Lawrance are both real estate representatives.

Life Studios Inc is a boutique Cinematography and Photography Studio comprised of an international award winning team of artists. Bringing a cinematic approach to storytelling, our job is to think outside the box, and develop and execute a creative vision that would otherwise be out of reach.
